

SPECIAL EVENT

Wayne County Community College District's Michigan Institute for Public Safety Education (MIPSE) Provides Training for Members of Chengdu, China Department of Public Safety

MIPSE provided public safety training for the Department of Public Safety Chengdu, China. The delegation, representing law enforcement, received training including; tunnel and confined space rescue, elevator rescue, multiple fire suppression, Special Weapons and Tactics Training (SWAT), emergency command center training and hazardous material handling. Chengdu is the capital of Tian Fu Zhi Guo, located in the Sichuan Province. It is one of China's most important cities in terms of historical and cultural significance.

