

SPECIAL EVENT

Wayne County Community College District's Michigan Institute for Public Safety Education (MIPSE) Hosts A Community CPR Day

MIPSE hosted a Community CPR Day at the Downriver Campus. The all day event trained more than 100 staff, family members and District residents on how to administer CPR, remove a foreign body (choking), and recognize signs of a heart attack or stroke in accordance with the American Heart Association standards.

