

SPECIAL EVENT

Wayne County Community College District's Michigan Institute for Public Safety Education (MIPSE) Provides a Basic Motorcycle Riders Course

The District's Michigan Institute for Public Safety Education (MIPSE) offers each year a basic motorcycle riders course which is designed for the inexperienced rider and provides extra range time on basic skills. Students that pass all written test and practical skills are provided a certificate of completion. Motorcycles are furnished for students to use during the course.

