Outreach and Recruitment

The Detroit Public Schools Community District hosted a back-to-school rally. WCCCD was the only community college in attendance. Parents signing their students up for school were also able to register themselves for the Fall semester, learn about dual enrollment and new programs District-wide.

Division of Educational Affairs

Examining Practices in Credit and Non-Credit Enrollment in Workforce Education

According to the National Council for Workforce Education, many community colleges are enrolling more non-credit than credit students. As non-credit education – particularly in workforce fields – has grown, states and community colleges are re-examining their policies and practices, to ensure that colleges continue to meet the needs of their local employers and students. Members of the Division of Educational Affairs and the School of Continuing Education and Workforce Development met to discuss and review program offerings related to career and skilled trades.

The Academic Benefits of Playing Chess

Studies have shown that the overuse of electronic devices may cause impede in the development of social skills, make us mentally idle and indolent. Students District-wide are staying active and socially engaged in campus life by playing chess. Studies support the academic benefits of playing chess including enhancing memory and visualization, develops methodical thinking, boosts spatial and numerical skills, increase problem-solving capabilities and strengthens logical thinking. Pictured are students in both career and transfer general education programs.

Employee Leave Balance Compliance Review

In a continuous effort to assure data documentation accuracy (DDA) and reporting compliance, the Division of Human Resources, the Office of Accountability and Transparency, and the Division of Administration and Finance are currently reconciling and auditing all employees' leave balances for 2016 - 2017.

This verification of leave data is essential in aligning the employee web-gate, general ledger and the Banner system. The audit provides cost center managers the critical data necessary for operating their areas efficiently and effectively.

Employee Recognition

Employee recognition is a powerful tool for maintaining positive, productive and an innovative organizational climate. At WCCCD, the Division of Human Resources fully understands the importance of recognizing faculty and staff.

Studies show employees who feel appreciated:

- Often go above and beyond what is expected of them
- Are more productive and motivated
- Are more likely to stay with the organization

Office of Accountability and Transparency Continuous Quality Improvement

Process and Form Review

The Office of Accountability and Transparency continues to review, analyze and recommend updates for District-wide processes and forms. Process and form enhancements provide continuous improvement and structure in a multi-campus District and are monitored to align with the Mission, Vision and the Chancellor's Strategic Goals.

- Retention Process and Form
- Field Trip and Liability Form
- District Policy Manual Review
- Grade Appeal Process and Forms
- Facility Usage Process and Form

Tech Tip Pay Attention to Your Mail

Did you know that a sign of identity theft may be when you notice your mail has stopped coming? If you have noticed that much of your mail has stopped coming, an identity thief might be after you. A common tactic is to file a change of address so that a thief can access your mail to piece together information about you.
