Successful Site Visit!

The Critical Conversations Podcast welcomed guest Carolyn Carter to talk about genealogy. Topics included tips on how to start researching one's genealogy, online resources and how to go about researching information.

Ms. Carter, WCCCD Chief Development Officer in the Development Office of Scholarships and Giving, teaches a beginning genealogy course and also leads the student genealogy club.

“For a Better Life” Eastern Campus Style!

Division of Educational Affairs

Staff from the Health Science Center met with Vicki Reyes and Dr. Michael Boytim from the Commission on Accreditation of Allied Health Education Programs.

Simulation Labs

The NUR214 Pediatric Nursing students participated in a respiratory syncytial virus infection scenario that mimicked a real crisis that could occur in a pediatric area of a hospital.

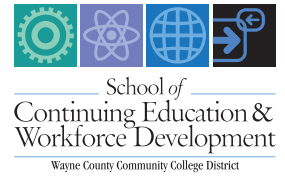

The Division of Student Services and Project Engage presented Walking While Black L.O.V.E. IS THE ANSWER

This documentary film debuted for the first time in Detroit at WCCCD's Downtown Campus.

The Division of Student Services presented MARIA HINOJOSA

One of the most prominent Latina journalists in our country, Ms. Hinojosa's conversation was riveting and engaging at the Downtown Campus. She provided information on Latinos who are the fastest growing demographic in our country, but their growth in numbers brings many challenges.

Student Success

ACCUPLACER proctors completed a national certification offered through The College Board. This professional development opportunity supported compliance with internal assessment; HLC documentation/site visit; alignment and quality control across the District; and continuation of ACCUPLACER assessment.

Student Activities

Campus Engagement: MiCUP Kick-Off

The Division of Student Services hosted a “Meet and Greet” at the Northwest Campus. This workshop was designed to encourage STEM students to apply and take advantage of grant and internship opportunities at Michigan Tech and to understand the application requirements.

Division of Educational Affairs

New Externship with WCCCD and University of Michigan for Students

WCCCD students participated in the first day of their externship with the University's Division of Public Safety and Security at the Michigan football game. The opportunity allows for students in the program to work alongside law enforcement and security professionals, and gain invaluable training and exposure while earning degree credit.

Academic Processes Related to Instruction

Faculty evaluations for Fall 2018 are in progress. These evaluations provide important feedback on how we can improve and support faculty as they work to help students succeed. They also support the development of programs for professional growth, promote effective teaching, and successful student outcomes.

Division of Educational Affairs

Career Spotlight: CIS Application Developer

WCCCD offers 10 concentrations in Computer Information Systems including Application Developer which is one of the world's fastest growing occupations. As smart phones and tablets continue to change the way we communicate, do business, and access news and entertainment, the demand for new and innovative mobile apps is growing, and so is the job market.

Language Institute - Lunch and Chat

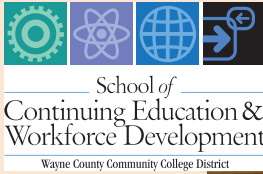

The Language Institute at the Downtown Campus partnered with Dr. Nancy Sterniak and her English as a Second Language class, to host their very first ESL Lunch and Chat. Together, the students, faculty, and staff were able to create real life conversations for all to practice their communication skills, and meet new people.

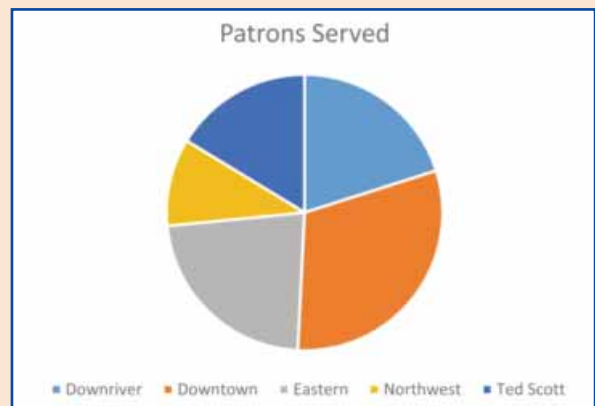

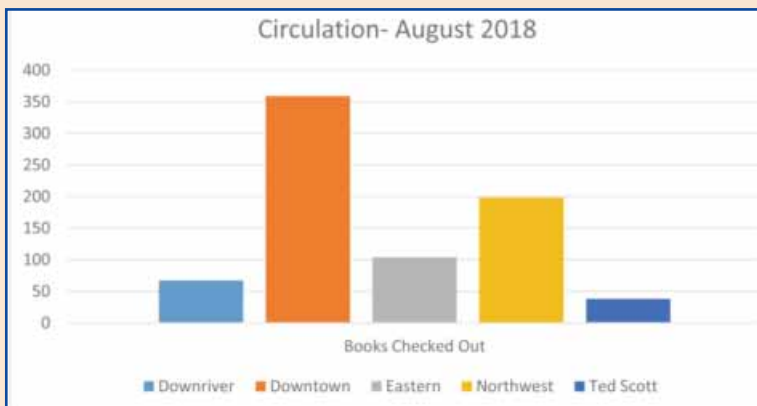

Division of Educational Affairs

Library and Learning Resources at the District: Public Library Partnerships

In partnership with the Belleville Area Library, the Ted Scott Campus hosted a special information workshop for the community. Information was provided about valuable resources available at the library.

Celebrating the Freedom to Read, the Downtown Campus LRC participated in the Banned Books Week by completing a display. This week brings together the entire book community in shared support of the freedom to seek and to express ideas, even those books some consider unorthodox or unpopular.

The Learning Resource Centers provide services and resources to support the curricula of the District and promote student success. System data reports are compiled monthly to reflect the circulation of books, number of patrons' served, number of new library users issued library cards, and number of programs/orientations and number of students attending.
