Chancellor's Community Update

VIRTUAL
DISTRICT-WIDE
CONFERENCE DAY
FALL 2022

Engaging and Thriving in a New Era

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 18, 2022

"As Chancellor, I value conference day each year because it is an opportunity for me to thank each of you for your commitment to our students. Together, we have made WCCCD one of the most outstanding community colleges in the nation."

Dr. Jerry Teplitz

President, Jerry Teplitz Enterprises, Inc.

Strategic Plan Update with Johnesa Hodge

District Vice Chancellor
Institutional Effectiveness

"GREAT conference, enjoyed all the speakers, helpful tips to decrease stress, exercise you can do with a chair, yoga, healthy eating tips, telling the story, self-care while decreasing stress, and being able to deliver the punch line. As I self-evaluate myself, these tools are quite helpful. Have a great day."

~ Marcellette Carter

"I thoroughly enjoyed yesterday's conference. Thank you and the committee for recognizing how important it is to take great care of yourself and reduce stress." ~DaShonta

Healthy Living Exercise Tips

“The comedian, Michael Jr. was entertaining as expected and the quick meal prepared by Chef Spratling was informative as well. Thank you for making DWCD so enjoyable!”
~Megan L. Lightfoot

Healthy Living Cooking Tips with Chef Lorenzo Spratling

“One of the best conference days ever! Great job.”
~Dr. Emanuel Chambers, M.D.

Dr. Michelle Loyd- Paige

Founder and CEO, Loyd Paige & Associates, and Exec. Assoc. President for Diversity & Inclusion Calvin College

Self-Care Matters

When you take the time to practice self-care, you're sending a message to your brain that you matter.

Spending time on self-care activities will help you feel better in the present and can also have long-term benefits for your mental health.

Self-care is about taking care of yourself both physically and mentally.

Ben Whiting
Magician

Participants enjoyed this cardio drumming class designed to move your body, inspire your spirit and challenge your mind.

Division of Workforce and Economic Development

Commercial Driver's License Program

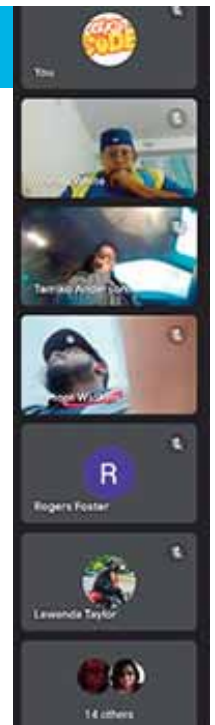

Students Aliyah Johnson, Robyn Scott-Benson, and Antwan Jefferson are three of the most recent CDL students scheduled for testing.

Entrepreneurship Training Academy

Cohort 16 of the Detroit at Work Entrepreneurship Training Academy is nearing its completion. Twenty four trainees have honed their vision, assessed the feasibility of delivering their product or service, and will complete a break-even and profitability analysis, identifying the features and benefits of their offering and SMART (specific, measurable, achievable, relevant and timed) goals.

Division of Workforce and Economic Development

Mechatronics Robotics Training Coming in 2023! Eastern Campus

The Mechatronics cell containing ten, two meter, multiton robots from Fanuc and Comau has been dismantled from the Stellantis plant that previously housed it, and is being relocated to the Eastern Campus.

This one of a kind cell contains full size mechatronic robots and will train hundreds of incumbent workers in 2023. It will be open to all students the following year. With this new addition, WCCCD will be able to offer students and residents training that will lead to higher paying jobs in the advance manufacturing workplace.

Designed by COMAU, a nationally recognized robotics integrator, WCCCD's training will prepare 300 students each year for the following careers:

With more than $27 million in equipment and support, WCCCD will be the only community college in the nation offering this mechatronics training program.
